CLERK'S REPORT

To be read in conjunction with the Agenda.

1. Public Forum.

Members of the public are invited to put questions or draw attention to relevant matters relating to the business on the agenda to the Committee's attention, prior to the commencement of business. This is for a period of up to 15 minutes and shall be limited to 3 minutes per person.

2. Apologies for Absence.

Apologies and reasons for absence to be given to the Clerk.

3. Declarations of Interest.

Members are advised to consider the agenda for the meeting and determine in advance if they may have a Personal, Prejudicial or a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest in any of the agenda items. If a Member decides they do have a declarable interest, they are reminded that the interest and the nature of the interest must be declared at the commencement of the consideration of the agenda item; or when the interest becomes apparent to them. Details of the interest will be minuted.

Where you have a Prejudicial Interest (which is not a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest), Members are reminded that they must withdraw from the meeting chamber after making representations or asking questions.

If the interest is a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest, Members are reminded that they must take no part in the discussions of the item at all; or participate in any voting; and must withdraw from the meeting chamber; unless they have received a dispensation.

4. Chairman's Announcements.

The Caretaker recently recruited for Holbrook Tythe Barn was unexpectedly awarded a place at university and decided to resign his position with the Parish Council.

Following consultation with staff, the Finance and Administration Committee decided that purchasing personal lockers for Roffey Millennium Hall was not necessary.

The Finance and Administration Committee reviewed the pension arrangements for future staff at it's meeting on 30th August 2018 and deferred making a recommendation to full Council until professional advice had been sought.

The Administration Clerk has not undergone GDPR training as the course, organised by the Surrey and Sussex Association of Local Councils (SSALC) , was cancelled due to low numbers.

5. Financial Review to 30th September 2018*

Cost Centre	Actual Expenditure*	Annual Budget	Expected spend from 1 st April 2018 – 30 th September 2018 (Annual budget divided by 2)

Payroll admin	0	360	180
Expenses	1,915	2,750	1,375
Training	100	1,500	750
Recruitment	12	250	125

Personnel total	141,895	285,793	142,896

*The month end hadn't been completed at the time that the review was prepared, therefore the actual figures may change slightly at the meeting.

Salaries are on target as there has been a vacancy for the Caretaker at Holbrook Tythe Barn and whilst other members of staff have been paid overtime to cover, other methods of covering have been adopted to manage the vacancy. Childcare vouchers are included in the salaries. Only 1% increase in salaries was allowed in the last budget.

Payroll administration will be more than budgeted. Last year it was £786. This should be absorbed by reduction in other cost centres.

Expenses have increased to reflect additional journeys to cover Holbrook Tythe Barn.

The Clerk is attending Legal and Finance Training and the Clerk's Technical Networking Day. First aid training will be offered to all Caretakers. Training identified as part of the Performance Management Scheme will be taken from this cost code. Free training is accessed where possible.

The recruitment cost centre only has £12 charged to it for 2018/19. The Caretaker post will only be suitable for someone living relatively close and with a flexible lifestyle. Advertising in the newspaper is not necessarily going to reach the candidates. One method of trying to fill the role may be printing flyers and doing house drops.

Personal Protective Clothing. All Caretakers may need additional items of uniform later in the year.

1.2 The aim is for employees to be truly representative of all sections of society, and for each member of the organisation to feel respected and able to give their best.

1.3 The organisation - in providing services and facilities - is also committed against unlawful discrimination of customers or the public.

2. WHO DOES THE POLICY APPLY TO?

2.1. The Policy applies to all employees of the Parish Council.

3. THE POLICY'S PURPOSE

3.1. The purpose of the policy is to:-

3.1.1. provide equality, fairness and respect for all in the Parish Council's employment, whether temporary, part-time or full-time.

3.1.2. not unlawfully discriminate because of the Equality Act 2010 protected characteristics of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race (including colour, nationality, and ethnic or national origin), religion or belief, sex (gender) and sexual orientation.

3.1.3. oppose and avoid all forms of unlawful discrimination. This includes in pay and benefits, terms and conditions of employment, dealing with grievances and discipline, dismissal, redundancy, leave for parents, requests for flexible working, and selection for employment, promotion, training or other developmental opportunities.

4. WHAT IS UNLAWFUL DISCRIMINATION?

4.1 Direct discrimination – when someone is treated less favourably than another person because of a Protected Characteristic.

4.2 Associative discrimination or discrimination by association – direct discrimination against someone because they associate with another person who possesses a Protected Characteristic.

4.3 Discrimination by perception – direct discrimination against someone because it is thought that they possess a particular Protected Characteristic even if they do not actually possess it.

4.4 Indirect discrimination - occurs where an individual's employment is subject to an unjustified provision criterion or practice which e.g. one sex or race or nationality or age group finds more difficult to meet, although on the face of it the provision, criterion or practice is 'neutral'.

4.5 Harassment – unwanted conduct related to a relevant Protected Characteristic which has the purpose or effect of violating an individual's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for that individual. You may complain of such offensive behaviour even if it is not directed towards you personally.

4.6 Harassment by a third party – harassment of employees by third parties such as customers or clients.

4.7 Victimisation – when an employee is treated less favourably because they have made or supported a complaint or raised a grievance about unlawful discrimination or are suspected of doing so.

5. NORTH HORSHAM PARISH COUNCIL RESPONSIBILITIES

North Horsham Parish Council commits to:

5.1.1. encourage equality and diversity in the workplace as they are good practice and make business sense.

5.1.2. create a working environment free of bullying, harassment, victimisation and unlawful discrimination, promoting dignity and respect for all, and where individual differences and the contributions of all staff are recognised and valued.

5.1.3. make opportunities for training, development and progress available to all staff, who will be helped and encouraged to develop their full potential, so their talents and resources can be fully utilised to maximise the efficiency of the organisation.

5.1.4. Make decisions concerning staff being based on merit (apart from in any necessary and limited exemptions and exceptions allowed under the Equality Act).

5.1.5. take seriously complaints of bullying, harassment, victimisation and unlawful discrimination by fellow employees, councillors, customers, suppliers, visitors, the public and any others in the course of the organisation's work activities.

5.1.6. Take action against intentional breaches of the provisions or spirit of this policy as misconduct under the organisation's grievance and/or disciplinary procedures. Particularly serious complaints could amount to gross misconduct and lead to dismissal without notice.

6. STAFF RESPONSIBILITIES

6.1 Staff have a responsibility to help the organisation provide equal opportunities in employment, and prevent bullying, harassment, victimisation and unlawful discrimination.

6.2 All staff should understand they, as well as their employer, can be held liable for acts of bullying, harassment, victimisation and unlawful discrimination, in the course of their employment, against fellow employees, councillors, customers, suppliers and the public.

NORTH HORSHAM PARISH COUNCIL

DIGNITY AND RESPECT AT WORK POLICY

1. POLICY STATEMENT

1.1 In support of North Horsham Parish Council's value to respect others, the Council will not tolerate harassment or bullying by, or of, any of its employees, officials, members, contractors or visitors to the council. The Parish Council expects that its staff should, at all times be treated with dignity, fairness and respect.

1.2 Bullying and/or harassment pollutes the working environment and can have a devastating effect on the health, confidence, morale and performance of those affected by it. It may also have a damaging effect on other employees not themselves the object of unwanted behaviour who are witness to it or who have knowledge of the behaviour. All employees are entitled to a working environment which respects their personal dignity and which is free from such conduct.

1.3 Bullying and/or harassment is a disciplinary offence. If it involves the bullying/harassment of a fellow employee, it will normally be dealt with as gross misconduct under the Council's Disciplinary Procedures. Bullying and/or harassment of an employee by an elected member is regarded as equally intolerable and will be referred to the Monitoring Officer at Horsham District Council. Where bullying and/or harassment arises from people not directly employed by the Council eg. customers or clients, such complaints will be taken seriously and will be pursued with the third party concerned, exercising whatever sanctions are available.

2. WHO DOES THE POLICY APPLY TO?

2.1 The Policy applies to all employees of North Horsham Parish Council, but the principal extends to the Council as a whole.

3. DEFINITIONS

3.1 Harassment is unwanted conduct which has the purpose of violating a person's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment. A single incident can amount to harassment if sufficiently grave.

3.2 Bullying can be any form of physical or verbal attack and/or threat of such. It is offensive, intimidating, malicious, insulting or humiliating behaviour and/or an abuse of the use of power or authority which tends to undermine an individual or group of individuals, gradually eroding their confidence and capability, which may cause them to suffer stress. Bullying can place another employee under unreasonable pressure or subject another to detrimental treatment, by either act or omission.

3.3 You may complain of behaviour that you find offensive even if it is not directed at you personally. You are also protected from harassment related to Discrimination by Perception and Associative Discrimination as defined in the Parish Council's Equal Opportunities Policy.

3.4 Some examples of unwanted conduct include:

Spreading malicious rumours, insulting someone, ridiculing or demeaning someone, exclusion or victimisation, overbearing supervision or other misuse of position of power, blaming a person for others' mistakes. Lewd comments about appearance, unnecessary physical contact, speculation about a person's private life and or sexual activities, threatened or actual violence, unreasonable and unjustifiable threat of dismissal, loss of promotion, etc., jokes about a person being either too old or too young to do a job properly.

But the list above is not exhaustive.

4. PROCEDURES TO DEAL WITH HARASSMENT AND BULLYING

4.1. The aim of the procedures is to stop unwanted behaviour and to prevent recurrence. Whereas it is no less potentially damaging, it may be that the perpetrator is unaware that their behaviour is unwanted and is causing distress. Therefore, if appropriate, the process should start with informal steps.

4.2 Informal steps

4.2.1. As soon as possible after the incident occurs, the receiver of the unwanted conduct should make it known that the behaviour causes offence and is unwanted.

- Verbally, either face to face or over the telephone.
- In writing
- Informally through their line manager.

4.2.2. Regardless of the approach taken, a detailed record should be made and kept, by the employee who is making the complaint, of the nature of the complaint and how it was resolved.

4.2.3. If the unwanted behaviour continues after an informal approach has been made, the matter should be dealt with on a more formal basis.

4.2.3. It is recognised that complaints of personal harassment, and particularly of sexual harassment, can sometimes be of a sensitive or intimate nature and that it may not be appropriate for you to try to resolve this yourself through informal steps or even to raise the issue through the normal grievance procedure. In these circumstances you are encouraged to raise such issues in confidence with your line manager or in the case of the Clerk with the Chairman of the Personnel Committee so that the necessary professional guidance can be obtained.

4.3 Formal steps

4.3.1 Where the informal approach fails or if the harassment is more serious, you should bring the matter to the attention of the Clerk or Chairman of the Personnel Committee. Initially this can be confidentially and informally. However, it may be appropriate for the complaint to be put in writing to the Chairman of the Personnel Committee after any initial discussion as this will enable the formal Grievance Procedure to be invoked.

4.3.2. The written complaint can include:

- a. the name of the alleged harasser;
- b. the nature of the alleged harassment;
- c. the dates and times when the alleged harassment occurred;
- d. the names of any witnesses; and
- e. any action already taken by you to stop the alleged harassment.

4.3.2. On receipt of a formal complaint consideration will be given to the employers duty of care and every effort will be made to separate the two parties in different work spaces to enable the investigation to proceed unhampered.

4.3.3. The Chairman of the Personnel Committee will call an Extraordinary Personnel Committee Meeting to appoint a sub-committee of three members to investigate the grievance and matters will progress in line with the Parish Council's Grievance and Disciplinary Policies.

4.3.4. If you bring a complaint of harassment you will not be victimised for having brought the complaint. However, if the report concludes that the complaint is both untrue and has been brought with malicious intent disciplinary action will be taken against you.

5. REVIEW OF THE POLICY

Subject to any new legislation or changes in case law which require immediate amendment, or the requirements of the Parish Council, the Dignity at Work Policy will be reviewed every two years. The next review is due in October 2020.
